

All Saints Newsletter

October 22, 2009

I want to let you know that Alex and Mom are home after 6 long weeks. They are doing fine and just catching up on some sleep. Thank you for all of your prayers, well wishes, cards and support extended to our family through this difficult time. Alex really loved to read the cards sent by All Saints students and staff. They would make him smile even when he wasn't always feeling well. So, thank you from the bottom of my heart. God Bless – Mr. Schenk

Reminders . . .

Fall sports coaches should have received a note from Mrs. Mikonowicz regarding turning in your team's sports picture. These photos will be reprinted in the yearbook. At this time the yearbook committee has only one photo – thank you! Hopefully, All Saints has more than one team. If you want your team included in the yearbook, please submit your team's photo as soon as possible.

Halloween planning – please check our October 1st Newsletter for specific costume guidelines. You can find it archived on our website in the Parents pull down menu. Our parade will begin about 1:00 PM on Friday, October 30. After parading outside (weather permitting), students will return to classrooms for a simple treat.

Eighth graders still have raffle tickets for sale. If you would like to be a part of the nightly November drawings, please call or stop by the school office to choose your “winning” ticket.

Your scheduled conference time was sent home last week. If you did not receive this communication, please ask your student for the copy or call Dawn in the school office for a duplicate.

We are looking forward to great dancing participation by Kindergarten, First, and Second grade students on Sunday, November 1, at 4:30 PM in the McAlear Center. See you there!

Special Note

Mrs. Richardson will be out of the building on Thursday and Friday (October 22 & 23) attending the Diocesan Principals' Institute Leadership Meeting at Sawmill Creek. Thank you to Mrs. Mikonowicz who will be the teacher in charge.

Does $20,000 for ASCS Sound Good?

With your help, our school could win $20,000. Tell your friends, family, and neighbors about this contest and ask them to vote for All Saints Catholic School! Get started by spreading the word now:

- Use your personalized contest URL to promote your school:
<http://www.care2.com/schoolcontest/3903179?refer=1493.07.1253153556.043815>
- You could be a winner, too! When your friends and neighbors vote through your personalized URL, you will be credited for recruiting them. The 20 people who recruit the most people to vote during the contest will win a $50 gift card.

There is no catch. It's free money that our school could win -- just by voting.

Employment Ministry

As Fr. Kent stated in his bulletin letter dated October 16, Blessed John XXIII has graciously invited All Saints to be a part of this year's Employment Ministry. The program coordinated by Joe Catalano begins on November 4 and meets on Wednesday evenings from 7:00-9:00 PM. These meetings strive to holistically recognize that a person's job search is a practical, emotional, and spiritual journey. The educational component includes at least ten topics with small groups formed to provide ongoing support and sharing as desired. The meetings are free. For planning purposes, the ministry committee requests that participants register in advance. If interested or need more information, please call our parish office (419-666-1393) before Monday, October 26,
